

Hazel May Powell Bone

1850-1950 Centennial Biography

Hazel May Powell Bone, wife of Isaac Eugene Bone, the fourth child and only daughter of Thaddeus and Esther Ann Ashton Powell, was born May 1, 1889, in Lehi, Utah. She attended Lehi District School, graduating from the eighth grade in May, 1905, and from high school in May, 1908.

She was baptized a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, December 4, 1921, and was an active member, serving as teacher and secretary of the Lehi First Ward Primary Association from 1923 to 1929, and as Relief Society Ward secretary from 1942 to 1948. She was Stake Board Secretary to the Primary Association fourteen years, and Bee Keeper in the Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Stake Board eight years. She became a genealogical worker in the Lehi First Ward in 1931 and has done much research in the Salt Lake Genealogical Library. She served in the Lehi Red Cross Chapter during World War II, as chairman of the First Ward in soliciting memberships, and as ward chairman of the War Salvage Committee in collecting clothing, metal and fats.

She was married to Isaac Eugene Bone, June 30, 1911 in Salt Lake City, Utah. Two sons were born to this couple.

After her father's death in 1923, she lived with and cared for her mother until her death in 1945. Since her husband's death in February, 1949, she has devoted herself to her family's needs, continuing as a conscientious worker in Church and community. Though modest and retiring her generous service has brought respectful gratitude from many who leaned heavily upon her in difficult times.
